

For as often as you eat this bread and drink
this cup,
you proclaim the Lord's death till
He comes.

Reverence in the Sanctuary

Behavior in the House of God

From

Testimonies to the Church, Volume 5, Pages 492-494. By Ellen G. White

There was a time when there was reverence for this house- a sacred hush as we entered in. No room for foolish chatter or whispering to each other. We were as if in the visible presence of God!

We must have pure thoughts and the holiest motives. We must have no pride, envy, jealousy, evil surmising, hatred, or deception in our hearts, for we are coming into the presence of the holy God. This is the place where God meets with and blesses His people. The high and holy One who inhabiteth eternity looks upon us, searches our hearts, and reads the most secret thoughts and acts of our lives.

We should remember that heavenly messengers are in the house. We all lose much sweet communion with God by our restlessness, by not encouraging moments of reflection and prayer. The spiritual condition needs to be often reviewed and the mind and heart drawn toward the Son of Righteousness. If when the people come into the house of worship, they have genuine reverence for the Lord and bear in mind that they are in His presence, there will be a sweet eloquence in silence. The whispering and laughing and talking which might be without sin in a common business place should find no sanction in the house where God is worshiped. The mind should be prepared to hear the word of God, that it may have due weight and suitably impress the heart.

Let there be no stopping in the aisles to visit or gossip, thus blocking them up so that others cannot pass out. The precincts of the church should be invested with a sacred reverence. It should not be made a place to meet old friends and visit and introduce common thoughts and worldly business transactions. These should be left outside the church. God and angels have been dishonored by the careless, noisy laughing and shuffling of feet heard in some places.

When the benediction is pronounced, all should still be quiet, as if fearful of losing the peace of Christ. Let all pass out without jostling or loud talking, feeling that they are in the presence of God, which His eye is resting upon them, and that they must act as in His visible presence.
