Couples Ministry: Prayer Necessary to Right Decision—

The majority of the marriages of our time and the way in which they are conducted make them one of the signs of the last days. Men and women are so persistent, so headstrong, that God is left out of the question. Religion is laid aside, as if it had no part to act in this solemn and important matter. Adventist Home pg. 71.2

Frequently Asked Questions

Q.1 What is “We all have Hope” Evangelism?

A.1 The “We All have Hope” Evangelism will be held on October 11th – 19th, 2024; with Pastor Roger Hernandez. In preparation for the actual evangelism we are excited to share information on Phase 1 of the 3 Phase preparation for the “We all have Hope Evangelism. Phase 1 is the SOS phase which stands for Season of Service which begins April 8 and ends of 18 May, 2024. This will focus on total membership engagement for the next 40 days.

Q.2 What is a Season of Service?

A.2 Church family, the purpose of the Season of Service is to motivate, and educate members to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our communities through a 40 day Season of Service (SOS). It has two components beginning with us first - that is beginning with us having daily devotionals for 40 days. Each daily lesson contains three parts, and they are:
See it – starts with scripture, internalize it believe it and share it.

Obey it – this part shares a few principles to learn

Share it – turn your knowledge about service into action. It provides three options of service activities for you to do daily. It provides wonderful self-devotional that can also be used in morning family worship that covers a different topic every day.

Q.3 How can I receive a copy of the daily devotional?

A.3 The daily devotionals will be divided into weekly compilations and will be distributed via email on the Monday for Tuesday start or hardcopy upon request and will be distributed on Sabbaths for the next six weeks.

Q.4 What is the Small Group Bible Study and how is it used over the next forty days?

A.4 Each week at the end of each devotional booklet will be one small group study that you can use in homes, workplaces, during Sabbath gatherings or wherever God leads you. They are simple, very easy and practical.

Q.5 Are there any other things we can be engaged in and participate in as a church?

A.5 Yes, you can join in the following church and function service activities:

- Community Service (Wednesdays 4:00 p.m. -5:00 p.m.)
- 50th Anniversary of Community Services – April 13th – distribution and visitations
- End of Season of Service Celebration with the Youth – May 18
- Departments/Ministries may wish do engage in a project

Additional information will be provided on the projects closer to the date of the project.

Q.6 When can members share the wonderful experiences they will be having during the 40 days of the Season of Service?

A.6 Every Wednesday night during Prayer Meeting you will have the opportunity to share your testimony and experiences during the Season of Service (SOS).

Q.7 What about Phase 2?

A.7 You will hear more about Phase 2 R.A.M.P. that starts June 30 and ends August 9, 2024 all in preparation for the ‘We all Have Hope Evangelism’ – you will hear more about this closer to the date.

Q.8 Is it anything else we can do during the Season of Service?

A.8 The key to ensuring we are prepared and we are preparing others is to bath everything we do in prayer and ask for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Reverence in the Sanctuary

Behavior in the House of God

From

Testimonies to the Church, Volume 5, Pages 492-494. By Ellen G. White

There was a time when there was reverence for this house- a sacred hush as we entered in. No room for foolish chatter or whispering to each other. We were as if in the visible presence of God!

We must have pure thoughts and the holiest motives. We must have no pride, envy, jealousy, evil surmising, hatred, or deception in our hearts, for we are coming into the presence of the holy God. This is the place where God meets with and blesses His people. The high and holy One who inhabiteth eternity looks upon us, searches our hearts, and reads the most secret thoughts and acts of our lives.

We should remember that heavenly messengers are in the house. We all lose much sweet communion with God by our restlessness, by not encouraging moments of reflection and prayer. The spiritual condition needs to be often reviewed and the mind and heart drawn toward the Son of Righteousness. If when the people come into the house of worship, they have genuine reverence for the Lord and bear in mind that they are in His presence, there will be a sweet eloquence in silence. The whispering and laughing and talking which might be without sin in a common business place should find no sanction in the house where God is worshiped. The mind should be prepared to hear the word of God, that it may have due weight and suitably impress the heart.

Let there be no stopping in the aisles to visit or gossip, thus blocking them up so that others cannot pass out. The precincts of the church should be invested with a sacred reverence. It should not be made a place to meet old friends and visit and introduce common thoughts and worldly business transactions. These should be left outside the church. God and angels have been dishonored by the careless, noisy laughing and shuffling of feet heard in some places.

When the benediction is pronounced, all should still be quiet, as if fearful of losing the peace of Christ. Let all pass out without jostling or loud talking, feeling that they are in the presence of God, which His eye is resting upon them, and that they must act as in His visible presence.
